Don't miss this opportunity to enjoy a sparkling evening of celebration, entertainment and culture with finalists and previous winners of Kent's Culture Awards

Canterbury for Culture invite you to join this year's celebration of winners and finalists, and to help to support this dynamic industry. It inspires and adds pleasure to the lives of so many, as well as making a significant contribution to the local economy.

The Culture Awards, now expanded to cover the whole of East Kent, have become Kent's premier recognition of creative and artistic excellence in the county.

This year's awards ceremony, supported by our principal sponsor the University of Kent alongside our individual Awards sponsors, will take place at the Rutherford Hall (University of Kent) on Thursday June 12th. Focused as it is on creative excellence in Kent, the Culture Awards offer a unique and prestigious hospitality & networking opportunity for your business.

DINNER, AFTER SHOW PARTY AND NETWORKING FOR YOUR GUESTS

The evening begins with drinks at 6.30pm.

The award ceremony includes a fabulous three course dinner and live entertainment, featuring a special guest performance from BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award winner and last year's One to Watch winner Luke Jackson.

After the awards The Gulbenkian are kindly hosting and sponsoring an exclusive after show party with the amazing Coco and The Butterfields.
